

KITCHEN PENDANT

BLANCO's latest pendant extraction hood design adds a little unique style to the modern kitchen. The Cube Pendant extraction hood (BW2500) is extremely stylish offering four levels of extraction to reduce cooking vapours quickly with ambient lighting. The Cube Pendant extraction hood is fitted with aluminium filters which are dishwasher safe and has soft touch controls; conveniently meeting the users' needs. With a width of 40cm, 2x2.5W LED lights and a carbon filter to protect the cooker hood from grease, the contemporary Cube Pendant extraction hood is suitable for hanging installation within any sized kitchen. Available in two colours, black and white, the hood retails at £580 exc. VAT.

ART FOR THE HOME

DKT Artworks is a unique multidisciplinary team of imaginative and highly skilled artists, with studios in London and Prague, specialising in the design, production and installation of handcrafted, high-end bespoke decorative finishes and site-specific artworks. The company has always championed the continued relevance of traditional hand-produced arts and crafts within the contemporary interior environment, at the same time significantly broadening and enriching its repertoire by expanding into new territories with modern techniques and computer-based skills. Since its foundation in 1979, DKT Artworks has been involved in over a thousand high-end residential projects, luxury city apartments, penthouses and houses, as well as countryside mansions and mountain chalets, both in the UK and worldwide, becoming one of the most experienced companies in its field.

Working with many renowned interior designers, and with the broadest range of styles and materials, DKT Artworks provides original and innovative solutions on the widest range of projects, including bas-reliefs, sculptures, murals, trompe l'oeil, paint finishes, decorative designs, gilding, verre églomisé, antiqued mirrors, hand-crafted mosaics, illuminated artworks and polished plaster.

Clients and designers are welcome to visit the company's showrooms, which include a comprehensive permanent display, as well as an extensive photographic archive of past projects. What sets DKT Artworks apart is the ability to work seamlessly alongside designers, outfitters and project managers, at any stage from design to completion, in the studio or on site. The 40-strong team combines its knowledge of processes and materials, artistry and craftsmanship, together with extensive project management skills, to make DKT Artworks a real asset to allow designers and architects to meet client's full expectations.
